

Julia Thoma

Programme Manager

As a programme manager at DMAN, Julia Thoma is responsible for the concept and coordination of qualification programmes for participants from China and the ASEAN region.

Competencies

Project management, training concepts, intercultural communication, event management

Professional Background

Julia Thoma completed her master studies of Sinology I (language and literature), Sinology II (state and society) and political science at the University of Hamburg. Already during her studies, she collected Chinese experiences during a foreign semester at the Beijing Foreign Studies University and a one-month research stay for her master thesis in Shanghai.

After professional qualifications in project management and in business administration, she worked more than 10 years as a project leader at a well-known association that promotes the development and maintenance of economic, cultural and scientific contacts between Germany and China. Here she planned and managed different German-Chinese cooperation projects in the educational area.

Language skills

German, English, Chinese, French